

---

Military Journal Major Ebenezer Denny Officer

marker text report - indiana - military journal of major ebenezer denny recounted, "[october] 18th. - colonel trotter was ordered out with three hundred men, militia and regulars." trotter returned that evening, against general harmar's wishes. harmar then redeployed the troops under colonel hardin on the 19th. denny wrote, "i saw that the men moved off with great the evolution of military strategy and ohio indian a ... - after the battle major ebenezer denny recalled, "the indians seemed to brave everything, and when fairly fixed around us they made no noise other than their fire, 1 ebenezer denny, military journal of major ebenezer denny (philadelphia: j.b. lippincott & co., 1859), 164-71; whenever possible, this dissertation will attempt to the first glasshouse west of the - journals - o'hara's papers and later quoted in the "military journal of major ebenezer denny."4 the second notation says : "to-day wemade the firstbottle, at a cost of $30,000." the larger amount refers to the initial investment in the second or the coal hillglasshouse. itwas george thurston who firststarted the rumor regard- the c ole of the